#9, #1, and #4 Not Lucky Numbers for West

The Wildcats just finished a 15-day stretch in which they played seven games, five against the top 11 teams in the state. Their next game is against #3 Millard North at home on Thursday. There are two weeks and four games left in the Wildcats' regular season.

#9 Papio South

In a game that was rescheduled due to a cancellation earlier in the year, Millard West traveled to #9 Papillion-LaVista South. The Titans beat West 61-42.

Peyton Moore led the Wildcats with 14 points. Daniel Bracaille made seven 3-pointers and scored 27 points for Papio South. Rio Haley added 11 points off of the bench for the Titans.

West started hot and took an early 7-2 lead over the Wildcats. Peyton Moore scored 6 points in the first quarter as West led 12-8 at the end of the period.

Haley started the 2nd quarter with a 3-pointer. South made 9 3-pointers in the quarter and scored 33 points to take over the game. The titans led 41-24 at the break.

"I was really excited about the way we came out. The guys came out to battle," Coach Bill Morrison said. "Bracaille and the rest of the team got

#1 Westside

The Wildcats faced #1 Omaha Westside on Friday. Westside's high pressure defense led the Warriors to a 70-31 victory.

Jessie Cauble led Millard West with 10 points off of the bench.

Westside had three players score in double digits. Charlie Davis made five 3-pointers and led the way with 19 points off of the bench. Reggie Thomas and Payson Gillespie both added 12 points.

Cole Kirschner made a 3-pointer with just under four minutes left in the first quarter to make the score 8-5 in favor of the Wildcats.

Westside made four three pointers in the last four minutes of the quarter and took a 20-8 lead after the 1st quarter.

The Wildcats started the 2nd quarter with a 7-3 run, but would not score again until the last possession of the half. Westside increased their lead to

#4 Gretna

The #4 Gretna Dragons beat Millard West 64-46 in the Wildcats third game against top opponents in a week.

Landon Pokorski and Alex Wilcoxsen led the Dragons with 24 and 18 points respectively. Peyton Moore led the Wildcats with 12 points.

West took an early 8-4 lead after a basket by Trace Thaden and two 3's by Peyton Moore.

Gretna's defense took over as the Dragons forced four turnovers and went on a 16-0 run to lead 20-8 at the end of the first quarter. Pokorski and Wilcoxsen hit two 3's each on four straight possessions.

Gretna's defense continued to give West's offense problems and created easy baskets as the Dragons took a 43-13 lead into the half.

West's offense found some rhythm in the 3rd quarter and scored on their first four possessions. But the Dragons was also able to score in that stretch.
